Our knowledge and experience in the mechanical & electrical sector allows us to accurately research and analyse every aspect of the project detail. Through rigorous checking and double checking of our client brief, we assure our written quotations for an 100 days, unprecedented in our industry. Giving you an assurance that our quote, is our final quote, without extras.

Standard terms apply Although the warranty quoted above includes construction services because of the broad definition of the term "Work," construction contracts often contain explicit warranties of the adequacy of construction services. An example of such a warranty is the following: "Contractor warrants to Owner that construction and related services provided hereunder shall be performed in a good and workmanlike manner, by workers who are appropriately trained and experienced in the work being performed, and in accordance with all requirements of the contract documents, industry standards for projects of similar type and quality, and all applicable laws, codes, regulations and other requirements, including safety requirements."
